A COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

"Dear Lord: In this complex world, grant that we may find the simple way of life.

Let us be done with pretention and seek ever to meet on the common ground of truth.

May we not be indifferent to opportunity to serve our fellow-man for we realize indeed that the greatest service to ourselves is to our fellow-man. Let not self but selflessness be uppermost in our service.

Teach us, O Lord, to know kindness, to be gentle, tolerant and charitable.

Deliver us from the bondage of prejudice and hate, and help us to thrust bitterness from us.

Let us know the joy of companionship based on unity of purpose and unity of action.

And, O Lord God, may we ever think more deeply, feel more deeply, live more deeply, and draw nearer unto thee day by day."

Afton Peterson
Richfield, Utah 1948

JUNIOR PLEDGE

I pledge my loyalty to the Junior Clubwomen,
By doing better than ever before
What work I have to do.
By being prompt, honest, courteous,
By living each day, trying to accomplish something,
Not merely to exist.

CONSTITUTION
Palo Alto Junior Women's Club
Revised April, 1955

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1: This club shall be known as the "Palo Alto Junior Women's Club".

ARTICLE II: OBJECT

Section 1: The object of this club shall be to unite members to carry on a service program along lines of social, philanthropic, educational and civic interests: to work with the District, State and General Federation in all activities for general welfare and to cooperate with the Senior Club.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Active Member - Any woman between the ages of eighteen and thirty-four years is eligible to apply for membership. She may remain a member until the end of the fiscal year following her fortieth birthday. Her application for membership will be accompanied by an initiation fee and dues as specified in Standing Rules.

Section 2: Attendance - If three (3) consecutive business meetings are missed, a member will lose her membership in the club unless she has a legitimate excuse for her absence. The legitimacy of the excuse will be decided by the Board.

Section 3: Method of Electing Members - Application for membership will be received according to procedure set up in the Standing Rules.

Section 4: Initiations - Initiations shall be held at least once a year.

Section 5: Resignation - In order to resign in good standing, a member should submit her resignation in writing.

Section 6: Reinstatement - A member who has resigned in good standing has the privilege of obtaining full membership by paying a reinstatement fee of one dollar ($1.00) in addition to current dues.

Section 7: Transfer Membership - The application blank must be accompanied by a letter of transfer from the former club describing activities and current status of dues. The status of transfer member's dues shall be verified by the Board.

ARTICLE IV: OFFICERS

Section 1: Elective Officers - The elective officers of the club shall be: President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer.

Section 2: Appointive Officers - The appointive officers shall be Auditor and Parliamentarian.

ARTICLE V: MEETINGS

Section 1: The regular business meetings of the club shall be held on the second Thursday of each month with the exception of July and August. Should any meeting fall upon a holiday, or should there be good and sufficient reason for holding a meeting at a time other than the regular meeting date, the President may designate such time of meeting as may in her judgement be desirable.

Section 2: Special Meetings - Special meetings may be called at the request of the president or three members of the club. No other business than that for which the meeting was called may be transacted.

Section 3: Quorum - One-third of the entire membership shall constitute a quorum for the transacting of business at any meeting.

ARTICLE VI: HOW AMENDED

Section 1: This constitution may be amended at any regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of all members present, provided advance notice, in writing, of the proposed amendment has been given to each member.

BY - LAWS

ARTICLE I: FINANCE

Section 1: Dues - The membership dues shall be ten (10) dollars per annum payable by September 15th.

Section 2: Fiscal Year - The fiscal year of this club shall extend from June 1 to June 1.

Section 3: Arrears in Dues - Members in arrears in payment of dues shall automatically be suspended September 15th and on December 1st arrearages shall automatically cause a member to forfeit membership in the club.

Section 4: Statement of dues shall be sent to the membership by the Treasurer on the 1st of June.

ARTICLE II: ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1: Nomination - The nominating committee shall be five members elected by plurality vote at the February business meeting. Members of the nominating committee should be members of the club for at least one year. The chairman shall be appointed by the president. This committee shall meet before the March business meeting. Members nominated for the offices of President and Vice-President should have served at least one year on the Board of Directors. The nominating committee's report shall be given at the March business meeting at which further nominations may be made from the floor.

Section 2: Election - Election shall be held at the April business meeting. Candidates for office receiving a majority of votes cast shall be declared elected to their respective offices. The four (4) candidates for Directors receiving a plurality of votes cast shall be declared elected directors.

Section 3: Installation - The officers and directors so elected shall be installed in office at the May business meeting, and shall assume the duties of their respective positions at that time. The club shall present the incoming president with a president's pin at her installation.

ARTICLE III: DUTIES OF ELECTIVE OFFICERS

Section 1: President - It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the club and of its Board of Directors, to see that all officers perform their respective duties and to perform such other duties as ordinarily pertain to this office. She shall be ex-officio at all committee meetings. She shall make necessary appointments in the case of vacancies in elective offices subject to the approval of the board.

Section 2: Vice-President - It shall be the duty of the Vice-President to preside at the meeting of this club and of its Board of Directors in the absence of the president. She shall also preside at one business meeting a year, the month of this meeting to be determined by the president. She is to be program chairman, purchase gifts in the name of the club, serve as coordinator of all chairmen and procedure reports, and perform such other duties as ordinarily pertain to this office, and such as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Treasurer - It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep a correct account of all money belonging to the club, to collect admission fees, dues and assessments and to make disbursements on treasury warrants signed by such officers as the Board of Directors may designate. She shall keep a correct account of all receipts and disbursements, employing the organization's double-entry system and shall furnish a monthly statement of the finances of the club at the regular meeting.

Section 4: Recording Secretary - It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to keep correct records of all meetings of the club and the Board of Directors, to keep a register of roll, to record a tally of all matters voted by ballot, to notify Board of Directors of delinquent members, and to sign with the President all orders on the treasury authorized by the club unless otherwise specified in the By-Laws. She shall also keep a book in which the Constitution and By-Laws, Rules of Order and Standing Rules shall all be written, leaving every other page blank, and whenever an amendment is made to any of them, in addition to being recorded in the minutes, it shall be immediately entered on the page opposite to the article amended, with a reference in red ink, to the date and page of the minutes where it is recorded.

Section 5: Corresponding Secretary - It shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary to send out notices and agenda of all regular, special and Board meetings. Adequate mailing time must be allowed in order that notices be received at least two (2) days prior to any meeting. She shall conduct the correspondence of the club, except when otherwise provided.

ARTICLE IV: APPOINTIVE OFFICERS

Section 1: The appointive officers of the club shall be Auditor and Parliamentarian. These officers shall be appointed by the incoming president with her Board's approval.

ARTICLE V: DUTIES OF APPOINTIVE OFFICERS

Section 1: Auditor - The Auditor shall audit all bills and financial ledgers semi-annually. Financial statements on club projects shall be audited as soon as possible.

Section 2: Parliamentarian - The Parliamentarian shall perform the duties pertaining to her office and shall be Chairman of the Revision Committee. She shall acquaint the members with the qualifications of officers prior to election.

ARTICLE VI: COMMITTEES

Section 1: Names - Standing committees of this club shall be: membership and hospitality, ways and means, program, publicity, penny art and fine art, drama, literature, legislation, youth conservation, build a better community, public welfare, budget and any others desired by the club.

Section 2: Definition - Standing committee is one appointed for a period of one year. Special committee is one appointed for a special purpose.

Section 3: How appointed - All Committee chairmen shall be appointed by the President.

Section 4: The Budget Committee shall be headed by the Chairman of ways and means, the other members being President, Treasurer and two (2) members of the club. The Membership committee shall consist of the Chairman and four (4) members. These committee members to be appointed by the Chairman with the approval of the President.

Section 5: Duties - Each committee shall transact such business as delegated it by the club and any additional business as referred to it by the President or Board of Directors. She shall request the Corresponding Secretary to write letters of acknowledgment and thanks. No committee shall expend club monies or enter into contract in the name of the club until a report has been made to the Board and approval given.

ARTICLE VII: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: The governing body of this club shall be the Board of Directors.

Section 2: How Constituted - The immediate Past-President, President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor and Parliamentarian and four (4) Directors elected in accordance with Article II, Election of Officers, of these By-Laws, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Powers of the Board - The powers of the Board shall be to formulate and direct policies of the club and to submit recommendations, accompanied by reasons, to the club for ratification.

Section 4: The Board is authorized to spend a sum, not to exceed ten dollars ($10.00) for any one purpose.

Section 5: Quorum - A majority of the voting power of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board.

Section 6: Meetings - There shall be a regular monthly meeting held at least a week before the regular business meeting. Additional meetings may be called by the President when, in her judgment, such meetings are necessary or upon the request of two members of the Board

Section 7: Attendance - If a member of the Club desires to attend a Board meeting, she may do so by invitation from the President. A written opinion on any subject to be discussed at a Board meeting may be mailed to the Corresponding Secretary prior to the meeting, and shall be given the same consideration by the Board as an opinion given in person.

ARTICLE VIII: METHOD OF VOTING

Section 1: The business of the club shall be transacted viva voca, except elections of officers, directors and new members, which shall be by ballot. Upon the request of three members, a vote by secret ballot shall be taken on any matter coming before the Club.

ARTICLE IX: RECORDS

Section 1: All records of this organization are open to inspection by any member upon request, and where a committee needs any records of the club for the proper performance of its duties, they shall be turned over to its Chairman. The same applies to the Board or Officers, as the case may be, upon request of the Board or Officers.

ARTICLE X: ADVISOR

Section 1: The Palo Alto Junior Women's Club retains the right to choose its own Advisor from the Senior Women's Club, and has the right to retain her as long as she and the members of the Junior Women's Club are in agreement.

ARTICLE XI: MANUAL OF AUTHORITY

Section 1: The rules contained in Roberts Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the club in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the By-Laws of this club.

ARTICLE XII: HOW AMENDED

Section 1: These By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of all members present, provided advance notice in writing, of the proposed amendment has been given to each member.

STANDING RULES

1. The President-elect and an elected delegate or their respective elected alternates shall attend state convention each year. The expenses of the delegates shall be paid from the club's treasury. The delegates shall be elected by a majority vote. The elected delegates and their alternates shall have been a member of the club for one year. Membership to begin on date of acceptance by Board of Directors.

2. The cost of district luncheons or dinners attended by the President or appointee, and the advisor shall be allowed by the club.

3. When a member establishes residence in some other city, the President should send a notification of her change of address to the Junior President in that city.

4. The dispensation of Club awards shall be left to the discretion of the Board of Directors each year.

5. Each member's club dues includes subscription to California Clubwoman, thirty five cents ($.35) to be sent to San Francisco District, thirty cents ($.30) to California State Federation and twenty-five cents ($.25) to General Federation.

6. Membership Requirements - A candidate for membership shall meet the following requirements:
   (a) Meet age requirements stated in Constitution Article III, Section 1.
   (b) Be sponsored by one (1) member.
   (c) Be presented at a business meeting.
   (d) Complete four (4) hours of service recommended by the membership committee.
   (e) Submit application for membership accompanied by one year's dues of ten dollars ($10.00) and five dollars ($5.00) initiation fee. Members joining between January 1 and June 1 shall pay dues of five dollars ($5.00). For the five dollars ($5.00) initiation fee a new member shall receive a corsage at the membership tea, her initiation dinner and a club pin to be presented to her at her initiation.

(f) Election of members - After application is submitted and before the following board meeting, any objection must be received by the membership chairman. The membership committee shall decide the validity of the objections. If there are three (3) or more objections, the sponsors will be notified and the applicant's name shall be withdrawn. If the applicant is accepted by the membership committee, her name will be presented for ballot at the next Board meeting.

7. All elected and appointed officers, with the exception of the four (4) Directors, and all Standing Committee chairmen shall submit a procedure report to the Vice-President.
